

Carol of the Bells

Hark! How the bells, Sweet silver bells, All seem to say,
Throw cares away. Christmas is here, Bringing good cheer
To young and old Meek and the bold

Ding, dong, ding, dong,

That is their song, With joyfull ring, All caroling.
One seems to hear Words of good cheer From every where
Filling the air. Oh, how they pound, Raising the sound,
O'erhill and dale, Telling their tale. Gaily the ring.
While people sing, Song of goodcheer, Christmas is here!

Diiing, ding, ding, dong.
Diiing, ding, ding, dong,
Diing, doong, diing, diing, doooong,

Christmas is here, Bringing good cheer
To young and old Meek and the bold

Ding, dong, ding, dong,

That is their song, With joyfull ring, All caroling.
One seems to hear Words of good cheer From every where
Filling the air. Oh, how they pound, Raising the sound,
O'erhill and dale, Telling their tale. Gaily the ring.
While people sing, Song of goodcheer, Christmas is here!

Diiing, ding, ding, dong.
Diiing, ding, ding, dong,
Diing, doong, diing, diing, doooong,

Diing, dong, diing, doooong.
